
Introduced by Senator Aanestad

February 27, 2009

An act to amend Section 125 of the Family Code, relating to family law.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SB 768, as introduced, Aanestad. Family law.

Existing law defines "quasi-community property" to include all real or personal property, wherever situated, acquired by either spouse that would have been community property if the spouse had been domiciled in this state, as specified.

This bill would make a technical, nonsubstantive change to that provision.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.

The people of the State of California do enact as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. Section 125 of the Family Code is amended to
2 read:
3 125. "Quasi-community property" means all real or personal
4 property, wherever situated, acquired before or after the operative
5 date of this code in any of the following ways:
6 (a) By either spouse while domiciled elsewhere—~~which~~ that
7 would have been community property if the spouse who acquired
8 the property had been domiciled in this state at the time of its
9 acquisition.
10 (b) In exchange for real or personal property, wherever situated,
11 ~~which~~ that would have been community property if the spouse

- 1 who acquired the property so exchanged had been domiciled in
- 2 this state at the time of its acquisition.
